

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

in the frame of the project "EUROMED: Education without borders" (www.euromeduc.com)

"The challenge of intercultural education -Yesterday, today and tomorrow..."

Conference agenda

Friday, 9th of June 2017

10.00 – 11.30 Opening session

Opening words by European Commission and Anna Lindh Foundation

Opening words by Estonian Government

Opening words by Organizers and hosts

Three key speeches:

"Key Challenges of intercultural education in the EuroMed Region" (Global and Human Rights Education approaches in formal and non-formal education systems) - Mr. Miguel Silva, North-South Centre of Council of Europe;

"Importance of Intercultural education for integration process of refugees and migrants into society" - Mrs. Marju Lauristin, Professor of Tartu University, Member of European Parliament

"Key challenges of intercultural education and dialogue in examples of Tunisia" - Mr. Anis Boufrikha, Head of Tunisian Network of Anna Lindh Foundation

11.30- 11.45 Coffee break

11.45- 13.30 I Working session - Intercultural education and dialogue

Panel discussion

- Amb. Hatim Attalah, Executive Director of Anna Lindh Foundation

- Mr. Mahmoud Ezzat, Deputy Director of the Special Projects at Bibliotheca Alexandrina

- Mrs. Heidi Paabort, Executive Director, Association of Estonian Open Youth Centres

- Mrs. Marwa Mahmoud, coordinator of intercultural education projects in Mondinsieme, Italy

- Mrs. Irene Käosaar, Head of General Education Department, Ministry of Ministry of Education and Research

13.30 – 14.30 Lunch

14.30 – 15.50 II Working session : Citizenship and human rights in intercultural education

Panel discussion

- Mrs. Susanne Kallanvaara, Munkebacksgymnasiet, Göteborg, Sweden

- Mr. Kari Käsper, Director of Estonian Human Rights Centre

- Ms. Liis Tamman, International youth work senior specialist in Tallinn sports and youth department

- Mr. Anis Boufrikha, Head of Tunisian Network of Anna Lindh Foundation

- Ms. Piret Hartman, Deputy secretary general of Estonian Ministry of Culture

16.00 – 17.30 Working Groups

Working group I - Implementing results (Educational E-Toolkit and Web-Resource / Cooperation platform) and proposals from EU and Arabian countries.

Working group II - Best practices + case analysis from different angles.

Working group III - Moving Beyond the Extremist Narrative: Youth on the frontline” The working group will focus on the potential of the next generation of intercultural leaders to create alternative narratives to extremist discourses

17.30 – 17.50 Closing words

18.00 – 19.00 Reception and Networking

More about conference: <http://euromed.sscw.ee/international-conference/> or www.euromeduc.com

*The organizers reserve the right to make changes to the event program!

Organised by:

Co-financed by:

HARIDUS- JA
TEADUSMINISTEERIUM

KULTUURIMINISTEERIUM

With contributions from :

Eesti
Avatud
Noortekeskuste
Ühendus

