EURO-MED: EDUCATION WITHOUT BORDERS

Project objective: Encourage creative solutions and advance intercultural education among young people of the Euro-Mediterranean region to increase communication and build trust to motivate young people cross borders to take charge of the development of the EuroMediterranean region and recognize the benefits of working together across cultural boundaries as we share common goals and a common future.

Target group: Young people (17-35) from Estonia, UK, Latvia, Italy, Sweden, Morocco, Jordan, Algeria, Tunisia and Egypt who are active and interested in the Euro-Mediterranean issues and have experience in education and creativity.

Actions: Preparatory partnership meeting in Riga, Latvia

- Creative Meetings in Sweden, Morocco, Jordan
- Editorial meeting for Web-resource and Intercultural Education Guide in Egypt
- International Conference in Tallinn, Estonia

Organised in partnership with:
Sillamäe Society for Child Welfare (Estonia) - www.sscw.ee
Munkebäcksgymnasiet in Göteborg (Sweden),
Radošas iniciativas centrs (Latvia),
Madina Leadership Programme, (United Kingdom),
Fondazione Mondinsieme del Comune di Reggio Emilia (Italy),
Le Forum Mediterraneen de la Jeunesse "FOMEJE" (Morocco),
Association Club Scientifique de Setif (Algeria),
Bibliotheca Alexandrina (Egypt),
Jubilee School/King Hussein Foundation (Jordan)
Zayrah Tunisia (Tunisia).

Official webpage www.euromed.sscw.ee

Products of the project will be:
- Electronic web-resource of the Euro-Mediterranean in English, Estonian, Swedish, Italian, French, Arabic and other languages.
- At least one action project in each partner country.
- A project E-booklet (digital)on the intercultural cooperation and communication across the field among young professional.
- Electronic Intercultural Education Guide (in English, French and Arabic)